

SARAH HEAD

For the past two decades, Sarah Head has firmly established herself as a solo artist, leaving an indelible impression on both the Australian and international music landscapes. Through her heartfelt lyrics, exceptional vocal prowess, and captivating stage presence, she has consistently garnered attention and admiration.

Sarah has built a solid reputation as a singer-songwriter, delivering captivating performances in various settings, from local pubs and clubs to weddings, festivals, and corporate events. Her musical journey has taken her across New South Wales, Queensland, and even the renowned city of Nashville. As a soloist, Sarah has entertained crowds at pubs, clubs and festivals including the Tamworth Country Music Festival, Urban Country Music Festival, Mudgeeraba Music Muster, DREAM Festival Dubbo, Groove and Food Festival Burleigh, Taste of Tamworth Festival, National Thunder Motorcycle Rally Tamworth, and a career highlight, performing an original on stage at the Bluebird Cafe, Nashville.

Her extensive time in the industry has provided her with invaluable insights and a global perspective. This has led to meaningful collaborations and recording opportunities with esteemed songwriters, musicians, and top-notch video producers, solidifying her presence on both national and international stages.

As a recording artist, her original compositions have gained significant recognition. Her songs can be heard on radio stations spanning Australia, the US, and the UK, and streamed online through platforms like Australia's Country Music Channel (CMC), iTunes, and Spotify.
